Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Mr. Dulles

DATE: 3 Oct 57

FROM : FMC FMC

SUBJECT:

If you approve, I will tell [] that he can see you in your office next Tuesday at 3:30 P.M.. You mentioned that you would see him sometime after Kim returned and would follow the recommendations made by [] in the attached Memorandum of Conversation.

STAT

I have talked to [] and he expects to be in town next Tuesday in the event you wish to have him present when you talk to [].

STAT

[] phoned me yesterday and I told him that I thought I would be able to get in touch with him later this week to give him a firm appointment with you.

Are these arrangements satisfactory?

Yes ☒ No ☐

Honorable Sherman Adams
Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Sherm:

STAT
I just wanted to let you know that [redacted] came down last week while I was on the West coast and had a good talk with some of our specialists here.

I expect him to be coming to Washington again in the next week or so and plan to see him myself at that time.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Frank -

We had a fine trip home and thank you for all your assistance. I regret that I must have thrown the envelope away, but anyway here is the original letter.

Please tell the boss I still would like to see him, at any time convenient for him, which I hope may be in the next couple of weeks.

Best wishes -
